Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic
DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Hon. Washington Gardner, Commander-in-
Chief, Grand Army of the Republic

Washington Gardner of Albion, Michigan, was born in Morrow County, Ohio, in February, 1845. In 1861, at the age of 16, he enlisted in Company D, 65th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, as a private; was in every campaign, skirmish and battle with his regiment, including Stone River, Chickamauga and Chattanooga, from the time of its organization to May, 1864, when he was badly wounded in the battle of Resaca, Georgia. He has been professor in, and public lecturer for Albion College, Michigan. He served the State of Michigan as Secretary of State for five years, and represented Michigan in the Congress of the United States for a period of twelve years. He served the Department of Michigan, G. A. R., as Commander, and at the 47th National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, held in Chattanooga, Tennessee, in September, 1913, he was unanimously elected Commander-in-Chief of that organization.

WELCOME

THROUGH its Mayor and the Citizens' Committee on Arrangments, Detroit extends to the Grand Army of the Republic and auxiliary organizations a genuine and sincere greeting.

In providing for the entertainment and comfort of visitors to the encampment, the city has striven to show appreciation of the service rendered by the Grand Army and the distinct honor it feels in having been selected for the national gathering of the veterans.

It is the earnest wish of every resident of Detroit that the visit of the Grand Army may be filled with pleasure for its members and that the memory may be a kindly and lasting one.

OSCAR B. MARX, Mayor.

Patriotic Songs

AMERICA

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride;
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Our father's God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;

He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;

He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword.

His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;

They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews
and damps;

I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring
lamps,

His day is marching on.

I have read a fiery gospel writ in burnished rows of steel;

“As ye deal with my contemners, so with you my grace shall deal.”

Let the Hero, born of woman, crush the serpent with His heel,

Since God is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;

He is dealing out the hearts of men before his judgment seat;

O be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant, my feet!

Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,

With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me;

As He died to make men holy, let us die to make men
free,

While God is marching on.

CHORUS:

Glory! glory! Hallelujah!

Glory! glory! Hallelujah!

Glory! glory! Hallelujah!

His truth is marching on.

MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA

Bring the good old bugle, boys! we'll sing another song—

Sing it with a spirit that will start the world along—

Sing it as we used to sing it, fifty thousand strong,

While we were marching thro' Georgia.

How the darkies shouted when they heard the joyful sound!

How the turkeys gobbled which our commissary found!

How the sweet potatoes even started from the ground,

While we were marching thro' Georgia.

Yes, and there were Union men who wept with joyful tears,

When they saw the honored flag they had not seen for years;

Hardly could they be restrained from breaking forth
in cheers,

While we were marching thro' Georgia.

“Sherman's dashing Yankee boys will never reach the coast!”

So the saucy rebels said, and 'twas a handsome boast;

Had they not forgot, alas, to reckon with the host,

While we were marching thro' Georgia.

So we made a thoroughfare for freedom and her train,

Sixty miles in latitude—three hundred to the main;

Treason fled before us, for resistance was in vain,

While we were marching thro' Georgia.

CHORUS:

Hurrah! hurrah! we bring the jubilee!

Hurrah! hurrah! the flag that makes you free!

So we sing the chorus from Atlanta to the sea,

While we were marching thro' Georgia.

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright bars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner still wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
On the shore dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream.
'Tis the star-spangled banner: oh, long may it wave
O'er the lang of the free and the home of the brave.

WE'RE TENTING TO-NIGHT

We're tenting to-night on the old camp ground
Give us a song to cheer
Our weary hearts, a song of home,
And friends we love so dear.

We've been tenting to-night on the old camp ground,
Thinking of days gone by,
Of the loved ones at home that gave us the hand,
And the tear that said "good-bye!"

We are tired of war on the old camp ground,
Many are dead and gone,
Of the brave and true who've left their homes,
Others been wounded long.

We've been fighting to-night on the old camp ground,
Many are lying near ;
Some are dead and some are dying,
Many are in tears.

CHORUS:

Many are the hearts that are weary to-night,
Wishing for the war to cease ;
Many are the hearts looking for the right,
To see the dawn of peace.
Tenting to-night, Tenting to-night,
Tenting on the old camp ground.

Last Verse :

Dying to-night, Dying to-night,
Dying on the old camp ground.

THE BATTLE CRY OF FREEDOM

Yes, we'll rally round the flag boys,
We'll rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom,
We will rally from the hillside, we'll gather from the plain,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom.

CHORUS:

The Union forever, hurrah, boys, hurrah,
Down with the traitor, Up with the star,
While we rally round the flag, boys, rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom.

We are springing to the call of our brothers gone before,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom,
And we'll fill the vacant ranks with a million freemen more,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom.

We will welcome to our numbers, the loyal, true
and brave,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom,
And altho' they may be poor, not a man shall be a slave,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom.

So we're springing to the call from the East and from the West,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom,
And we'll hurl the rebel crew from the land we love
the best,
Shouting the battle cry of Freedom.
